

I honestly do not know what I would do without Satellite Radio, specifically XM Radio. I not only listen to it at home while getting ready for work, but I also listen to it at work. There is no other service out there that gives me the variety and quality that XM Radio provides. Please do not take away from me what I pay for every month.